

LEXINGTON FARMERS MARKET
UNDER THE PAVILION
3542 RTE 42 LEXINGTON
SAT. 9-30 10:00 am until 1:00 pm

WELCOME BACK THE LIBRARY BAND-ENOUGH TOE TAPPING TO KEEP YOU WARM!

There are only two markets( 9-30 and 10-14) left this season so come celebrate autumn with us.

All of your favorite vendors will be on hand to make sure you bring home nothing but the best to fill up your frig and pantry.

Did you know the three Town tables: mushrooms, produce sales, and Men in Hats, are the sole monetary supports of the market? Not only that, but there wouldn't be a market without the dedicated volunteers.

Every Friday, before each market, a volunteer drives to Catskill to pick up mushrooms and produce that will be sold the following day. On the market mornings, volunteers arrive an hour before the actual market to carry produce, tables, chairs and supplies to the pavilion. Produce is then portioned, priced and volunteers are ready to man the tables. Vendors are welcomed, musicians are thanked, Men in Hats get their game on and the fun begins. After each market, more volunteers arrive to "take it down". This year, we are grateful for the professional graphic designers who created our posters, on-line spreadsheets and who maintain our social media sites.

Next time you are at the market, thank the volunteers, vendors and musicians for all they do. They join together to represent all that makes Lexington "lovely". Oh, help is always needed and appreciated!
